Hewapaper Dead Beats.

From the Springhed Republicas

The newapaper profession, like every other, carries dead weight, more clogs and shackles on the moving, efficient wheele of the system. It is unfortunate that it is so, for in no vocation, more than that of journalism, are active, enthusiastic and industrious men needed, and in more do they meet so sure a rew ind. But these Bohemlans, the harples of the precessand the professional plunderers of the public, are always crowding to the front rank, courting the popular gaze and affecting a display of themselves on the strength of their profession The working met, who control and direct the ships on which they foot, and ore as the prestige which they so magnedly assume, are patiently thinking and wrining at their deeks. They are too busy, and too much is before them and upon them, to turn aside for the display and celai of every public holiday. But the hangers on of sewspapers, men who work for little, and then are overpaid for their services, are and ing themselves of complimentary invitations to all sorts of public courtsies, with a nonchaince se though all was for them und them only—

A Sab-Committee of the Ways and Mens Committee is in session on details and phrise clopy of the new Tax bill, which will not be reported for several weeks to come.

The amount of gold in the Treasniy to day is $10.4,000,000, including $287,000,000 payable in gold certificates, the balance, $75,300,000, belongs exclusively to the United States. It is estimated that the receipts of gold from Customs from this date to May ist will be $28,000,000, making an aggregate of $103,000,000, out of which there is payable on the first of May about $27,000,000 increast due on the 5 20 bonds, leaving 10 bonds, and on the first of May about $27,000,000 increast due on the 5 20 bonds, leaving a balance on hand of gold, after paying the expense, of $83,500,000, or $71,000,000 after the coin certificates are paid. These estimates are, in case no sales of gold are made between the periode.

The Committee on Reconstruction, at its meeting this morning, agreed to report the resolution in favor of dispussing with the iron clad out in the case of Mr. Butler, from the Tennsee District, and others similarly situated, and allowing them to take the usual Constitutional oath. It is intended to exclude in this arrangement all persons relieved by action of Congress from political disabilities incurred by participating in the reboilion.

cal disabilities incurred by participating in the reboilion

Mr Brooks, of New York, moved to extend the same privilege to John Young Brown, of Kentucky, but this was disagreed to, only two Democratic members of the Committee voting for it. It was agreed that the bill for removing pollitical disabilities from ex robels whose names were recently before the Committee, should not be shorted for the present a Mr. Stevens was of the opinion that further investigation should be made into the circumstances under which these men entered and quit the rebeilion. He said he did not want to make a wholesale pardon of implacable rebeis.

Mr. Storms was authorized to report a bill of fered in the House by him and referred to the Reconstruction Committes, for dividing up the State of Texas into four or more separate States. First, I set down the spathy of large classes of society, the highest and lowest, who do not use the system, or only partially use it and are two short sighted to see how they are benefited by it. Second, the indeplace appreciation of its benefits even by those who do use it, as shown by the indifference of parents, the prevalence of the notion that the cheapest isocher is the best, the complaints that the ducation offered in the soming to do not interest to the the admitted increase, in spite of all the seeming at treations of the system, of the twin earls, absunted mand trusney. Fourth, the cost of the system, which is becoming heavier year by year, and looks formidable in the aggregate the burden of which will be more oppressive by felt as the number of those increases whose direct enjoyment of its advantages in an inverse ratio to the money they contribute to its support Friftin, the growing feeling that more distinctly religious teachings is required, and that even the interests of morality are imperficilly attended to Sixth, the altitude and in tentions to the Romus Catholic heararchy, silent is and almost sulfonly acquirecing in the system, but any agents of the system is not agent and the system of the cruse the majority of the pupils do not enjoy site advantages of schooling for more than live to seven years of them life, and they can make hit the progress or solid acquirements in such brief intervits of study.
